(57) A decorative wall (22) of ceiling (10) system including a grid (12) of elongate members (13) fixable to a ceiling or supported adjacent a wall, and fastener means adapted to hold the adjacent ends of the elongate members in fixed relationship and to hold the elongate members beneath the ceiling or adjacent the wall. Preferably the fastener means includes a first threaded member protruding downwards from the ceiling and a second threaded member co-acting with the first threaded member so as to urge the elongate members upwards. A scotia (11) strip is attached to the underside of the ceiling or to an adjacent wall and the ends of the elongate members adjacent the walls are carried by the scotia.
